

Leicester Mass. Jan. 21st 1865

Mrs. Gould

I write to ask you if there were any letters sent to you that were taken from the body of George W. Gould after he was killed. I was informed by the sargent of his company that the things that were about his person were sent to you and among the things there was a letter or letters.

What I wish to know particularly is what letters were sent to you and by whom were they written?

Truly Yours

George S. Bond
